Andrews Crosby & Associates, Ltd. Selects Clearview as Enterprise Content Management Partner

Partnership Pairs Next Generation ECM Solution with Innovative Business Process Management Consulting Firm

Auburn Hills, MI, October 30, 2007 – Clearview Software, the premier innovators of contemporary Enterprise Content Management (ECM) solutions designed exclusively for Microsoft® technology environments, is pleased to announce that Andrews Crosby & Associates, Ltd., a consulting firm specializing in the development of innovative enterprise-wide Business Process Management (BPM) solutions, have selected Clearview as their ECM partner solution and have joined the Clearview Global Select Partner Program.

Under this partnership, Andrews Crosby & Associates will be trained and certified to sell the Clearview solution, which will enable Clearview to leverage the expertise and strong relationships of Andrews Crosby & Associates in diverse markets, such as legal and healthcare. With the addition of Clearview, Andrews Crosby & Associates brings to their portfolio a fresh, new ECM solution that encapsulates Microsoft® SharePoint®, while addressing many of the advanced ECM functional requirements of their customers and their market.

“We chose to partner with Clearview and market their ECM product because it meets our customers’ demand for an innovative and easy to use ECM solution,” said Jack Hodys, Vice President of Consulting Services for Andrews Crosby & Associates. “The functionality of the Clearview Iriss Desktop Gadget is one of the main reasons we chose Clearview. We are amazed with the Iriss and its ability to improve productivity by providing our customers quick, on-demand access to content from their line of business and desktop applications.”

“Clearview is pleased to welcome Andrews Crosby & Associates into the Clearview Global Select Partner Program,” said Steve Leichtman, Senior Vice President of Sales for Clearview Software. “The expertise and business application knowledge that Andrews Crosby & Associates brings to their market is highly regarded and Clearview is proud to have our ECM platform selected for their customers.”

Clearview is the first “next-generation” ECM solution that has been designed to bring a fresh, new approach to how organizations implement and use content. Built 100% from the ground up on .NET and exclusively for the Microsoft technology platform, Clearview uniquely encapsulates Microsoft SharePoint as a core component of the Clearview ECM architecture and delivers enterprise-class, rich ECM functionality that extends the ECM components of the SharePoint platform.
